Our Expectations on Mentors

1. Help your Mentees gain skills and confidence so that they can build up a sense of responsibility towards their own future.
2. Try to widen your Mentees' horizon and enhance their growth through learning from your experience.
3. Enable your Mentees to deepen understanding of themselves so that they could make proper choices about their future areas of studies and careers.
4. Be a patient listener to your Mentees and communicate with them through such means appropriate to their backgrounds.
5. Meet up with your Mentees at least 4 times a year. Record the meetings in the Forms provided by the College and report to the College if the Mentees do not respond.
6. Serve as a Mentor for at least one school year.

Questions for Mentor-Mentee Matching:

1. Do you have any preference for the gender of your Mentees?

Yes, boys only / Yes, girls only / No.

2. Would you like to take up Mentees with particular career goals and if so, which career goals?

---

---

3. Are you able to offer work-based learning opportunities to your Mentees? If yes, please specify the type (e.g. workplace visit, career sharing by you or your connections, summer work experience).

---

---

4. Are you willing to be a Mentor for at least one school year and meet your Mentees for at least 4 times in the year (including the first meeting arranged by us)?
